

What is ACEP?

The American College of Emergency Physicians (ACEP) is the first and largest professional organization of emergency medicine physicians in the United States. It was founded in 1968. In August 2018, ACEP had over 39,000 members.

What is Iowa ACEP?

The Iowa Chapter of the American College of Emergency Physicians is the local chapter of the American College of Emergency Physicians. Iowa ACEP is dedicated to advancing excellence in emergency care, and advocating for emergency physicians, their patients and the health of Iowa communities.

How many members does Iowa ACEP have?

Currently, membership is comprised of around 230 Iowa emergency physicians.

Can you be a member of the Iowa Chapter independently of membership in the national organization?

Iowa ACEP Bylaws require membership in the American College of Emergency Physicians.

Who can be a member of ACEP/Iowa ACEP?

Active membership in ACEP is available to physician emergency specialists who meet one of the following requirements:

- Satisfactory completion of an emergency medicine residency accredited by the Accreditation Council on Graduate Medical Education (ACGME)
- Satisfactory completion of an emergency medicine subspecialty-training program accredited by ACGME
- Satisfactory completion of an emergency medicine residency training program accredited by the American Osteopathic Association (AOA)
- Satisfactory completion of an emergency medicine residency program approved by an ACEP-recognized accrediting body in a foreign country
- Certification by an emergency medicine certifying body recognized by ACEP
- Membership categories are also available for Emergency Medicine Residents, Medical Students, and Interns

How often does the Iowa ACEP Board of Directors meet?

The Iowa Board of Directors typically meets twice a year and holds member benefit events in conjunction with National ACEP Events.

Who can attend Iowa ACEP quarterly meetings?

Any Iowa member in good standing may attend Iowa Chapter meetings. Non-members, Residents and Medical Students wishing to attend these meetings must contact the Iowa Chapter in advance for approval.